
IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES,

FEBRUARY 28, 1825.

Read twice, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

AN ACT

For the relief of William Kellogg.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 there be refunded and paid to William Kellogg, out of any
4 money in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum
5 of five hundred and seventeen dollars and ninety-three cents,
6 it being the amount of the foreign tonnage duty and light-
7 money, paid by said William Kellogg to the Collector of Mid-
8 dletown, on the schooner Five Sisters, an American built ves-
9 sel, and the amount of ten per centum, additional duty paid to 10 said Collector, on the goods imported in said schooner, which 11 additional duty, light money, and foreign tonnage duty, were 12 charged by said Collector, in consequence of an irregularity
13 in the issuing of the register of said schooner, by which the 14 same was rendered void.

February 28, 1825.

Passed the House of Representatives.

Attest,

M. ST. CLAIR CLARKE, C. H. R.
